

Press Release

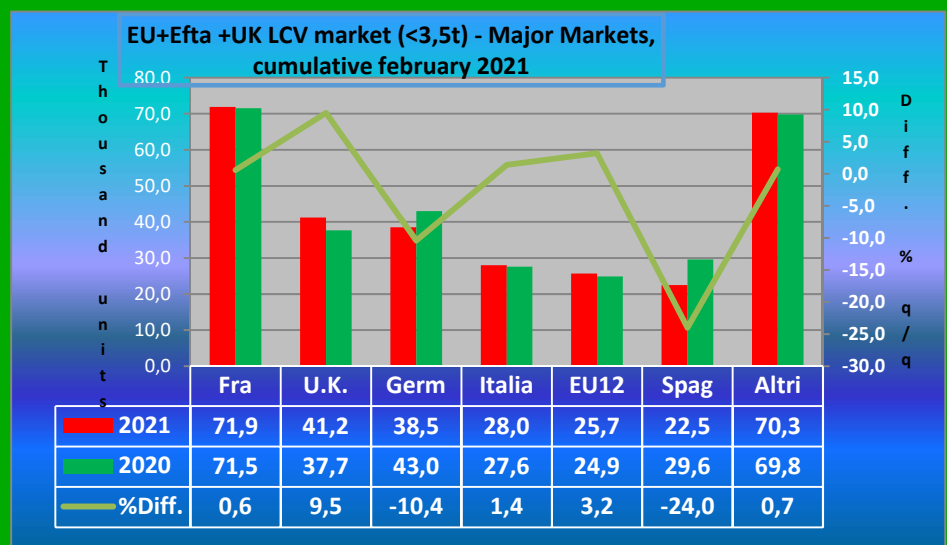

Torino, march 25, 2021

European Commercial Vehicles and Trucks Market: February 2021

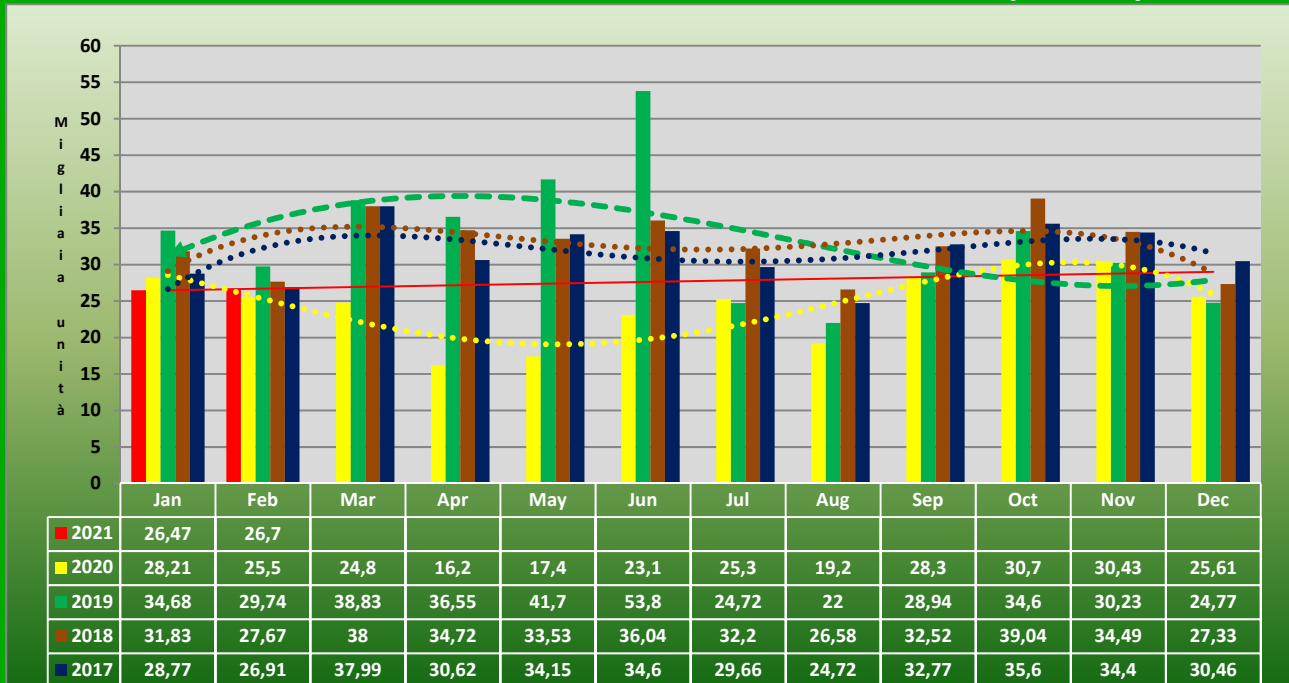

The demand for commercial vehicles (<3.5t) in the EU + Efta + UK rises slightly in February: + 2.5%. In the cumulative of the first two months, however, the market drops by 2%.

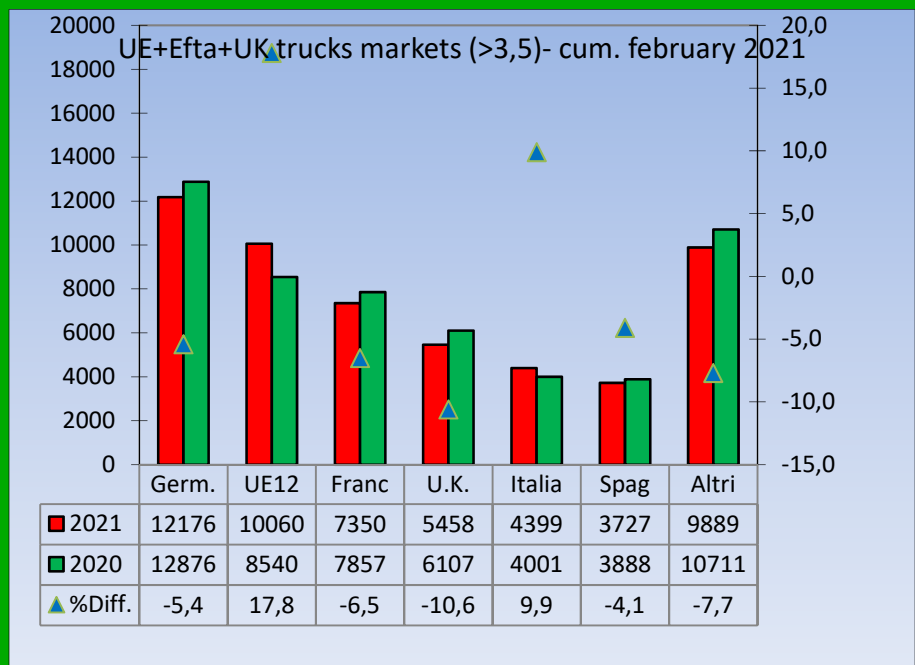

Among the major markets, the greatest losses were recorded in Spain (-17.7%), followed by France (-5%), Germany (-2.3%) and the EFTA area (-0.2%). The United Kingdom rises by 22%, followed by the EU12 (+ 11.5%) and Italy (+ 11%) The position of the major markets in the two-month period appears in the table alongside.

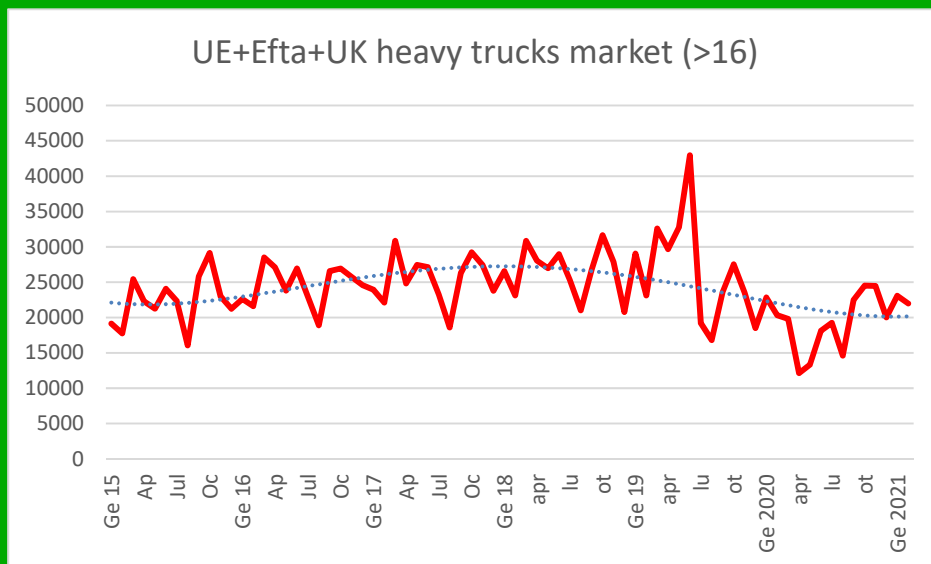

The truck market rises more decisively (> 3.5t): + 5.5% in February. In the cumulative of the 1st two months, the market drops by 1.7%.

The position of the major markets in the two months appears in the table opposite.

At the same time, the trend in demand for trucks in the heavy goods sector is also rising (> 16t): in February + 8.3%.
 In the cumulative of the first two months, the market grew by 1%.

The position of the major markets in the two months appears in the table opposite.

